

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Wm. Duckley, 23, 238 W. 29th st., shot in abdomen by unidentified man. Seriously wounded.

Burglar entered home of Mrs. Emil Baumn, 2731 Irving ave. She threw dish pan at him. He fled.

Yesterday was the hottest Oct. 6 for 33 years.

Leotta Keller, 20, 411 N. Willow st., Austin, arrested on charges preferred by Mrs. Grace Southwich, 5212 W. Madison st., Austin. Says she swindled her out of $8 worth of groceries.

Wladyslaw Golis, 18 months, 4544 Justine st., who turned pan of burning grease on himself Saturday, died today.

Daniel Madden, 69, found dead in home of his daughter, Mrs. K. W. Rathburn, 2122 W. Madison st. Heart failure.

R. E. Harding, 4569 Oakenwald av., held up and robbed of $4 at 46th st. and Lake av.

F. J. Martin, Springfield, O., met two strangers as he was leaving Polk st. depot. Matched pennies. He is $100 short.

Agnes Gordon, 18, 8749 Escanaba av., S. Chicago, arose early to go to mass. Burglar stuck revolver in her face, threatening to kill her if she made any noise. She screamed. He escaped.

Michael Loscraski, 8613 Baltimore av., wore straw hat. Crowd saw him. When he came to in the hospital he found he had something new on his head—3 stitches.

Unknown auto struck motorcycle of Jacob Friedman, 25, 2129

Potomac av., and Louis Sinken, 28, 1424 N. Leavitt st., at W. Division st. and main drive to Humboldt Park. Both severely bruised.

Mrs. H. Wilson, 23, 607 La Salle av., tried to end life by taking antiseptic pills. Quarreled with husband. Revived.

Members of the Illinois state naval reserves left for N. Y. to take part in the naval review of Oct. 12 to 16.

Burglars entered apartment of J. Hamilton Lewis, Virginia Hotel, Ohio and Rush sts., and took $6,500 worth of jewelry.

One ton of dairy butter will be given to deserving poor here during the National Dairy Exposition, Oct. 24 to Nov. 2.

Mrs. James Prine, 316 N. Harvey av., struck by auto of Mrs. A. C. Buck, Austin, at Lake st. and Kenilworth av. Seriously bruised.

Edward Tauch, 2012 Blue Island av., struck by auto at S. Ashland av. and W. 22d st. Seriously injured. Auto escaped.

Miss "Cy" Woodman, New York, traveling from New York to San Francisco on motorcycle, struck by auto in Washington Park. Slightly injured.

Frank Provosana, 608 Forquer st., and Joseph Sobadani, 547 DeKoven st., threatened to blow Harry Issci's head off. Arrested.

Mrs. Ella Stromberg, Winnetka, struck by car on C. & M. electric line. Killed.

Joker called police and told them 3 were dead from gas at 357